If there's one thing that can be said about Mumbai, it's this — it's people really have an ear for music!

No wonder then, that musicians from all over the world try not to give the city a miss when they want to perform.

And this time, it's not one but nine international artists who're going to cast their spell on Mumbaikars, starting from April 17 to May 5. And bringing them down here is WOA Records, an international record label, part of the WOA International media group. Along with Mumbai, Pune too will get a dose of their music.

The WOA Records India Tour 2008 will have something for everyone as musicians specialising in everything from electronica to jazz to folk and even rock will make their presence felt.

And kicking off this tour with a fusion music night at Hard Rock Cafe, Mumbai on Friday and Hard Rock Cafe, Pune on Saturday are three WOA artists — Oliver Sean, Jesus Aaron and Sparky

Quano.

Jesus Aaron is a tremendously spiritual and an ardent believer in the existence of universal divinity and is known for his wide ranging and undeniably artistic tunes. From mood soothing and mellow, to rock, to folk and anti-folk to quasi old-timey, Jesus Aaron will captivate those with a taste for eclectic music.

Founder and mentor of WOA Records, Oliver Sean mastered the guitar at the age of 8 and was writing and composing by the age of 11. He burst into the International Music Industry in 2003 with his self-produced debut album I Like It — a blend of adult contemporary and world music where he fuses main stream pop/rock with Indian tablas. Sparky Quano is a Japanese rockstar whose only instruments are guitars — electric and acoustic. Sparky is ready to enthrall the city with his unique brilliance.

So come to Hard Rock Cafe, Mumbai on Friday and Hard Rock Cafe, Pune on Saturday if you don't want to miss being enchanted by these eclectic musicians. And believe us, you don't!
